1.0 PURPOSE

1.1 The Code of Business Conduct of QAD Inc. contains the specific Corporate Policies adopted by the Board of Directors that relate to the legal and ethical standards of conduct of directors, employees and agents of the Company. The policies listed in the index set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto constitute the Code of Business Conduct and govern the conduct of business by the Company.

1.2 The purpose of this policy is to provide a general statement regarding the Company's expectations as to the legal and ethical nature of conduct of the Company's directors, employees and agents while acting on the Company's behalf and to provide for the administration of the Company's Code of Business Conduct.

1.3 Moreover, this policy is intended to enhance the qualifications of the Code of Business Conduct as a program that, under the United States Sentencing Guidelines, is reasonably designed, implemented and enforced so as to be generally effective in preventing and detecting criminal conduct.

2.0 DEFINITIONS (as used in the Code of Business Conduct)

2.1 "Board of Directors" or "Board" means the board of directors of QAD Inc.

2.2 "Company" means QAD Inc., a Delaware corporation, its divisions, subsidiaries and successors.

2.7 “Law,” “Laws,” “law” or “laws” means laws and rules and regulations of governmental agencies and authorities.

3.0 POLICY

3.1 Standards of Conduct

3.1.1 It is the Company's policy to act ethically and observe and comply with all Laws applicable to it or the conduct of its business wherever located. In some situations the applicable Law of the United States may conflict with the applicable Law of another country. In such cases the Company will endeavor to resolve such conflict following the guidance of its Legal Department. Where such a conflict cannot be resolved, the applicable Law of the United States will be observed and complied with by the Company.

3.1.2 The Code of Business Conduct applies to directors and agents of the Company as well as its employees. For purposes of this Code of Business Conduct, agents includes consultants, contractors and others performing work on behalf of the Company. However, in the case of agents whose activities are wholly outside the United States, Corporate Policy 1-007, International Business Relationships, and the relevant provisions of Policy 1-0114, Bribes, Kickbacks, Other Unlawful Payments and Sensitive Transactions, establish the policies and procedures to be observed with respect to such agents.

3.1.3 The Code of Business Conduct sets forth specific Corporate Policies governing the conduct of the business of the Company. These policies were developed and are intended to be applied in good faith with reasonable business judgment to enable the Company to achieve its operating and financial goals ethically and within the framework of the Law.

3.1.4 It is the personal responsibility of each director, employee and agent of the Company to adhere to the standards and restrictions, whether imposed by Law or the Code of Business Conduct, applicable to his or her assigned duties and responsibilities and to conduct himself or herself accordingly. Such standards and restrictions require each director, employee and agent to avoid any activities that would involve the Company in any practice that is not in compliance with the Code of Business Conduct. Any director, employee or agent who does not adhere to such standards and restrictions is acting outside the scope of his or her employment or agency.

3.1.5 Beyond legal compliance, all Company directors, employees and agents are expected to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the discharge of their assigned duties and responsibilities. This requires the practice of honesty and integrity in every aspect of dealing with other Company employees, the public, the business community, stockholders, customers, suppliers and governmental and regulatory authorities. It is the policy of the Company not to discriminate against employees, stockholders, directors, officers, customers, suppliers or anyone else doing business with or for the Company on account of an individual’s sex (which includes pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and medical conditions related to pregnancy), age, marital status, victim of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking status, sexual orientation, sex stereotyping, transgender status, gender identity, gender expression, race, color, ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, genetic characteristic or information, religion, national origin, military or veteran status, family leave or medical leave status, or other statutorily-protected characteristic.

3.2 Administration of Code of Business Conduct. The Code of Business Conduct of the Company shall be administered as follows:

3.2.1 Scope of Code of Business Conduct - The Board of Directors or a subcommittee of the Board shall, periodically, in light of the experience of the Company, review the Code of Business Conduct and, when necessary or desirable, make changes (i) to ensure its continued conformance to applicable Law, (ii) to ensure that it meets or exceeds industry standards and (iii) to ensure that any weaknesses revealed through monitoring, auditing and reporting systems are eliminated or corrected.

3.2.2 Allocations of Responsibility - The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the administration of the Code of Business Conduct. The Executive Committee shall establish such procedures as it shall deem necessary or desirable in order to discharge this responsibility. Such procedures shall provide for obtaining advice of legal counsel where appropriate. In discharging these responsibilities, the Executive Committee may delegate authority to such committees, officers and other employees and may engage such agents and advisors as it shall deem necessary or desirable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any waiver of any of the provisions of the Company’s Code of Business Conduct for executive officers or directors may be approved only by the Board of Directors and must be promptly disclosed to the Company’s stockholders if required by law, along with the reasons for the waiver.

3.2.2.1 The officer in charge of legal matters shall serve as the Company's Director of Business Conduct. It shall be the responsibility of the Director of Business Conduct to act as the principal representative of the Company under the Code of Business Conduct.

3.2.3 Delegation of Substantial Discretionary Authority - No employee of the Company shall delegate discretionary authority to, or enter into any transaction on behalf of the Company with, any third party that such employee knows, or through the exercise of due diligence should know, has a propensity to engage in illegal activities.

3.2.4 Communication of Policies - To ensure the continued dissemination and communication of the Code of Business Conduct, the Executive Committee shall take, or cause to be taken, reasonable steps to communicate effectively the standards and procedures included in the Code of Business Conduct to directors, employees and agents of the Company.

3.2.5 Monitoring and Auditing - The Executive Committee shall take reasonable steps to monitor and audit compliance with the Code of Business Conduct, including the establishment of monitoring and auditing systems that are reasonably designed to detect conduct in violation of the Code of Business Conduct by directors, employees and agents of the Company.

3.2.5.1 To the extent so directed by the Executive Committee, the information developed by the Company's independent accountants in performing their engagement by the Company and by its internal auditors in the performance of their assigned responsibilities shall be made available to the Executive Committee in its capacity as administrator of the Code of Business Conduct as a means of monitoring and auditing compliance with the Code of Business Conduct.

3.2.5.2 To the extent so directed by the Executive Committee, the results of periodic health, safety and environmental audits and export administration audits of the Company's facilities shall be made available to the Executive Committee in its capacity as the administrator of the Code of Business Conduct as a means to monitor and audit compliance with the Code of Business Conduct.

Executive Committee - The officer in charge of legal matters shall report to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, periodically, regarding the general effectiveness of the Code of Business Conduct. The Human Resources Department shall report to the Board of Directors, periodically, regarding the environmental, health and safety performance of the Company as it relates to the Code of Business Conduct.

3.3 Reporting System

3.3.1 The Executive Committee shall establish a reporting system that will allow violations of the Code of Business Conduct to be reported and acted upon by officers or other employees of the Company with sufficient authority to deal objectively with the reported matters. The existence and nature of the reporting system shall be communicated to all directors and employees and, to the extent appropriate, to agents of the Company. It shall be a violation of this Policy to intimidate or impose any form of retribution on any director, employee or agent who utilizes such reporting system in good faith to report suspected violations (except that appropriate action may be taken against such director, employee or agent if such individual is one of the wrongdoers).

3.3.2 Employees are encouraged to report violations to their supervisors. Supervisors may seek the advice of appropriate line and staff personnel, including representatives of the Legal, Human Resources or Finance Departments. Employees may also report violations directly to the Company's Chief Financial Officer or officer in charge of legal matters, particularly in instances where no corrective action has been taken following a previously reported violation or when a violation continues. Reports of violations may also be made to the Legal Department or the highest ranking officer of the employee's department or area. These reports will be handled in confidence to the extent permitted by legal or regulatory requirements, and no person will suffer retaliation as provided above. Reports also may be made anonymously in countries that allow anonymous reporting and such anonymity will be honored and protected to the extent possible. However, in some instances where a reporting party chooses to maintain anonymity, it may not be possible to resolve the matter completely.

3.4 Investigation of Alleged Violations

3.4.1 If, through operation of the Company's compliance monitoring and auditing systems or its violation reporting systems or otherwise, the Company receives information regarding an alleged violation of the Code of Business Conduct, the Chief People Officer or the officer in charge of legal matters, or both, and their designees are responsible for investigating the alleged violations. Such investigation shall, as appropriate:

3.4.1.1 Evaluate such information as to gravity and credibility;

3.4.1.2 Initiate an informal inquiry or a formal investigation with respect thereto;

3.4.1.3 Prepare a report of the results of such inquiry or investigation, including recommendations as to the disposition of such matter;

3.4.1.4 Make the results of such inquiry or investigation available to the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee for action (including disciplinary action by the Executive Committee); and

3.4.1.5 Recommend changes in the Code of Business Conduct necessary or desirable to prevent further similar violations.

3.4.2 The Company may disclose the results of investigations to law enforcement agencies while maintaining attorney client privilege and work product immunity.

3.5 Disciplinary or Other Enforcement Measures

3.5.1 The Company shall consistently enforce its Code of Business Conduct through appropriate means of discipline, as well as other appropriate means. The Executive Committee shall determine whether violations of the Code of Business Conduct have occurred and, if so, shall determine the disciplinary measures to be taken against any director, employee or agent of the Company who has so violated the Code of Business Conduct. The Company shall take such other action as may be appropriate to halt such violations of the Code of Business Conduct as may be determined to exist.

3.5.2 The disciplinary measures, which may be invoked at the discretion of the Executive Committee, include, but are not limited to, counseling, oral or written reprimands, warnings, probation or suspension without pay, demotions, reductions in salary, restitution and termination of employment.

3.5.3 Persons subject to disciplinary measures shall include, in addition to the violator, others involved in the wrongdoing such as (i) persons who fail to use reasonable care to detect a violation, (ii) persons who if requested to divulge information withhold material information regarding a violation, and (iii) supervisors who approve or condone the violations and (iv) persons who attempt to retaliate against employees or agents for reporting violations or violators or for otherwise participating in or cooperating with any Company investigation.
